

WALI MUHAMMAD

Selected Quotes

Paul Wells, The Gazette

“Muhammad has planned a musical event whose artistry and logistical ambition blows away paltry expectations.”

Community Contact Magazine

“His is a year long conviction and he is continuously seeking ways to share this passion with other jazz lovers.”

Len Dobbin, Montreal Mirror

“Versatile and rock-steady drummer who has become a significant force since his arrival in montreal.”

Peter Hadekel, The Gazette

“Jeri Brown leads pianist Cyrus Chestnut, bassist Dave Young and the tight musical drumming of Wali Muhammad in a four-night jazz stand.”

Andrew Jones, Freelance writer

“Casting a wide rhythmic net Muhammad is right up there with Avery Sharpe, deftly swithching between slinky standards, traditional gospel and contemporary soul.”

Wali has grown into one of our finest and competent musicians. His enthusiasm, great attitude, great time feel and most importantly the desire to improve not only as a drummer but as an educator/composer puts him in that category of wonderful musicians I know I can always count on.

Oliver Jones

Wali Muhammad is one of the best drummers that I have ever worked with in the last 50 years of my musical career. His integrity and musicianship never ceases to amaze me.
